Handpicked villas with private pools

For 28 years we have dedicated ourselves to discovering a charming collection of properties with private pools in areas where local culture and tradition are never far away.

Welcome to Vintage Travel
BE OUR GUEST

Welcome to our 2019 collection of handpicked properties with private pools.

Twenty-eight years ago when May and Tony Poole founded Vintage Travel, their aim was to offer a selection of properties in areas where local culture, tradition and a typical way of life could still be appreciated. Those same values hold true today. It is a delight to hear the experiences of our many returning guests be they sampling local delicacies in typical restaurants, witnessing (or even participating!) in a colourful annual festival or forming lasting friendships with welcoming locals.

Being individually owned, every property in our portfolio is different: unique in style and character. Some offer contemporary design-led interiors, others charm with their quirky, rustic ambience or simple, minimalist styling, still others remain cherished family homes meticulously furnished by generations of local families.

This year sees the introduction of Sicily, our new Italian destination. With sandy beaches lapped by azure waters, verdant landscapes of vines, olives and almond trees, and fascinating towns offering a rich mix of history and culture, Sicily perfectly complements our existing portfolio.

Our well-travelled team has a detailed knowledge of our properties and take pride in helping you choose the style and location that is just right for you. We warmly invite you to contact us so we may help you discover the charm and distinctive character of our varied destinations.

Best wishes.

INCLUDED IN YOUR HOLIDAY

Your chosen property will be as described, fully prepared with beds made up and towels provided. Bed linen and towels will be changed at least once a week. A cot and highchair can be provided (in most cases free of charge) if requested at the time of booking. A complimentary welcome food pack of essentials will be waiting for you on arrival and most properties provide pool/beach towels. We are happy to research flights and help with travel or car hire plans if you wish; in any event we will send you a pre-holiday information pack including directions to the property, travel documents, luggage labels and other useful information.

SMALL PARTY RATE

If there are just a few of you travelling, outside of the peak summer holidays, why not stay in one of our larger houses and pay a reduced rental price. Our unique pricing offers you the opportunity to enjoy the extra space and the privacy provided by a larger property. You will still have exclusive use of the property, grounds and swimming pool. Just look out for the ‘Small Party Rate’.

OF NOTE...

Look out for the ‘Of note...’ symbol, which highlights a feature of a property that we feel is particularly eye-catching, for example its view, its interior or its location.

EXCEPTIONAL HOLIDAYS

Staying in a private home is the perfect way to spend your holiday. Whether your choice is a town house, a cottage in a village, a villa by the sea or a country manor; from a hideaway for a couple, a two or three bedroom house for a family holiday, to a mansion (or even a castle!) large enough for several families wishing to holiday together, we have a property to suit.

The Gillet family, Casa do Conde, Galicia

Our travels have taken us across the length and breadth of Spain’s varied regions, over its wide plains and imposing ‘sierras’, through charming villages, historic cities, and along an extensive coastline of dramatic scenery and hidden coves. It is however the picturesque scenery and hidden coastlines of Catalunya, Andalucía and Galicia that have captured our attention.

In the north east, the pine-clad hillsides that tumble down into idyllic coves draw ‘aficionados’ of Catalunya back to its shores time and time again. In the west, it is the Caribbean-like sandy beaches and historic cities that make Galicia such a favoured destination, whilst in the southerly climes of Andalucía the scent of orange blossom wafts through dazzling white ‘pueblos blancos’ and seemingly endless golden sands line the shores.
THE CITIES OF ANDALUCÍA
Silhouetted against vast plains of neatly ordered groves of olive and fruit trees, Andalucía’s principal cities are not to be missed. Islamic arches, breathtaking palaces and hidden inner patios of abundant carnation pots create the atmospheric scenes to be found in the historic centres of Granada, Sevilla, Córdoba and Ronda to name but a few.

THE BEACHES OF CATALUNYA
It is easy to see why artists have been drawn to the Costa Brava’s picturesque shores for so many centuries. In this north eastern pocket of Catalunya, pine-clad hillside tumbles down to the water’s edge into idyllic bays of crystal clear Mediterranean that are perfectly explored by boat or on foot via a scenic coastal path.

FESTIVALS
The exuberance and traditions of Spain are never more evident than at festival time. Fiestas in honour of the ‘Virgen del Carmen’ take place on Andalucía’s Costa de la Luz; on the eve of Sant Joan the Catalans light bonfires and enjoy a traditional after-dinner dessert of ‘coca’ with a glass of cava; in Galicia dancers fill the streets of mountain villages to celebrate each local festival.

MARKETS
Mingle with the locals amongst the lively stalls that fill village and town squares on market day and discover locally produced handicrafts and delicacies: colourful ceramics in the Catalan pottery centre of La Bisbal, freshly steamed ‘pulpo’ (octopus) in the fishing villages of Galicia and locally woven rugs in the mountains of the Andalucían Alpujarras.

THE SEAFOOD OF GALICIA
The fjord-like ‘rías’ lining the spectacularly indented coastline of Galicia’s Rías Baixas are beautifully sheltered and their calm waters are the source of some of the finest seafood in Spain. It is therefore not surprising to see menu boards displaying ‘ostras’ (oysters), ‘mejillones’ (mussels) and ‘vieiras’ (scallops), the freshness of which has to be seen to be believed.

OUR HIGHLIGHTS
Our first holiday in Spain and we have to say Galicia is an amazingly lovely region. Everyone has been friendly and tolerant of our limited Spanish. We have got to know Condolmar, Baiona and the surrounding countryside well. The house and pool are perfect. When not enjoying ourselves at the villa we have been out and about exploring. All in all, a fabulous holiday in a fabulous place!

Galicia has been what we’d hoped for, good weather, sunny, hot, good food, friendly people and perfect beaches… We enjoyed Vigo, Baiona for restaurants and activities and Gondomar for quieter times and a great bakery and restaurants. Overall a lovely time and hope to return. Thanks to Gloria & German as hosts and Vintage Travel for organising.

The McCarthy family, Pedrouco - Galicia
Sparkling aquamarine waters and sandy beaches are never far from our island properties, making these destinations an ideal choice for a holiday by the sea. The Balearic Islands of Mallorca and Menorca and the Canary Island of Lanzarote exude a charm that leaves their visitors wanting to return year after year.

Scenic lanes wend their way through undulating countryside to hidden coves and sandy beaches, quaint villages and picturesque fishing ports hum with the sounds and sights of local life and traditional fiestas are maintained with colour and exuberance. For those seeking more tropical environs and an enviable climate for holidays all year round, Lanzarote’s varied coastline offers something for everyone, from bustling resorts to secluded coves, whilst in its tranquil interior rolling countryside encircles flower-bedecked villages.
MALLORCA’S MILLS
Mills have been an important economic part of the Mallorquin landscape for centuries, some pumping water, others grinding cereals. Many have disappeared whilst others have been restored as loyal companions to the island’s cultural heritage, standing tall in their bright blue and white coats, silhouetted against the bright sky.

THE COASTLINE OF MENORCA
Circumnavigating some 220km of stunningly picturesque coastline, the recently restored Cami de Cavalls offers walkers, cyclists and horse riders the most wonderful views and access to Menorca’s maritime gems. Follow the signs to this footpath or simply drive along the country lanes to discover sheltered coves of turquoise blue.

THE CLIMATE OF LANZAROTE
“I wish there were a month when I could feel chilly and put on a jumper”. This is a phrase frequently uttered by our hosts in Lanzarote, whose island is bathed in over 2500 hours of sunshine every year and enjoys an annual average temperature of 22°C. It makes it an ideal destination for winter breaks.

DRAMATIC LANDSCAPES IN LANZAROTE
Lanzarote’s status as a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve recognises the uniqueness of its dramatic landscape. Here you will discover the spectacular volcanic scenery of the Timanfaya National Park, the neatly ordered vineyards of La Geria and pristine whitewashed villages that glow with the bright blooms of flower filled balconies and palm lined squares.

OUR HIGHLIGHTS
We’ve had a wonderful relaxing holiday at Casa Antonio, the perfect place from which to explore. Our children very much enjoyed the pool! We would recommend visiting Haria & The Valley of a Thousand Palms, camel riding, the national park and caves. We found the houses of Cesar Manrique particularly inspiring. Thank you to our welcoming hosts for making our stay extra special.

MORE OF OUR PROPERTIES IN MENORCA

Thank you for a wonderful holiday. We have had such fun at the beach doing lots of different activities such as sailing and inflatables. Villa is brilliantly located. Very close to the beach. Surprisingly starry nights and warm, clear, sunny days. Excellent temperature in the pool. Enjoyed the BBQ, reading on the terrace and swimming. Mallorca and Villa Son Pou have been fantastic. We will definitely return again in the future. Many thanks.

The Kidel family, Son Pou, Mallorca

Fantastic location - scenic, great swimming, easy to get into city and nightlife with a massive choice of restaurants. Views from the villa spectacular and gardens and outside facilities excellent.

The De Gilbert family, Villa Carlar, Menorca
Situated at the western end of Iberia where the land ends and the sea begins, Portugal has so much to offer: a dramatic shoreline of stunningly unspoilt beaches, quaint fishing villages, medieval walled towns, castles galore, vineyards producing exquisite local wines and charming people from whom a warm welcome can always be assured.

The two regions we feature offer distinct landscapes and their own unique personalities. In the north-western corner, local life evolves in a delightfully unhurried way in the stone villages, lush wooded landscape and sandy shores of the Costa Verde. Occupying the southernmost province, bustling resorts and charming fishing villages can be found along the Algarve’s dramatic shoreline, whilst typical villages and traditional market towns nestle amongst the almond groves that cover the hillsides above.
SIGHTSEEING FROM THE RIVER MINHO
Separating the northernmost tip of Portugal from the Spanish region of Galicia, the River Minho winds its way through a lush landscape of wooded hills and neatly ordered vineyards. Admire the stunning landscapes of these two neighbouring countries from a boat trip or have a go at wakeboarding and simply enjoy being on the water!

THE UNSPOILT BEACHES OF THE COSTA VERDE
Sweeping sandy beaches stretch as far as the eye can see in the beautifully unspoilt north western corner of Portugal. Backed by dunes, wooded countryside and traditional fishing villages, this picturesque coastline offers open stretches of water for surfers, sheltered inlets for bathing and a delightful sense of calm even in the height of summer.

THE HERITAGE OF THE CITY OF PORTO
Multi-coloured houses rise up the hillside in a delightful labyrinth of narrow cobbled streets, steep alleys and mosaic pavements in the ancient centre of Porto. Down below on the other side of the river, port lodges line the waterfront and offer a fascinating insight into and tastings of the region’s most famous product.

THE FABULOUS COASTLINE OF THE ALGARVE
Lined with dramatic cliffs, pretty coves and long stretches of golden sands, the Algarve’s beautiful and diverse coastline can claim to be one of Europe’s finest. Over 70 accredited Blue Flag beaches offer the highest standards of water quality and facilities to make this one of Europe’s best beach destinations.

GASTRONOMY ON THE ALGARVE
A rich maritime history coupled with the ever present Atlantic ocean has led the Portuguese to develop a cuisine that is rich in seafood and fish dishes. This is clearly evident on the Algarve where local eateries offer a delicious choice of freshly made specialities such as fish cataplana, monkfish rice or flavoursome grilled sardines.

OUR HIGHLIGHTS

Had a great time in Cristelo. We took the train to Douro and had a great tour. Ponte de Lima is charming and we had a lovely lunch on the river front. Braga is worth a visit and there was even a festival on while we were there. The Vinho Verde wine route is lovely along the Minho river and we ate just outside of Moncao. Thank you for a lovely space to enjoy an unspoilt part of Portugal.

We have had such a lovely stay here at Casa Gondarem. Lovely local towns and villages. Valencia was really quaint and historical. We went to Barcelos on market day and visited Porto, which we found magical. Eaten some fantastic meals! The house was a calm oasis, the garden has lots of nooks and crannies and we loved the pool.

Thank you for a wonderful holiday!

The Stewart family, Casa de Gondarem, Costa Verde and Minho
We were very impressed with your service which was superb and we very much hope to use your company again in the future. Thank you for making it so easy for us!

Mr & Mrs Sutton, Solar da Montanha
Mesmerising scenery, irresistible food and wine, and a fascinating heritage are just a few reasons why France remains a favourite holiday destination for so many. We are pleased to feature properties in three regions across France, each unique in flavour and character.

In Brittany, a maritime theme pervades its history, traditions and cuisine. We focus on rural charm in the South West: swathes of orchards and vineyards punctuated by picturesque villages and châteaux. And in Provence, backdrops of lavender and olive groves contrast with dramatic mountains and gorges, and with the bays and marinas of the Côte d’Azur.
MARKETS
A vital feature of French life, the weekly market is a wonderful experience for visitors: colourful arrays of fresh produce, locally grown or reared, as well as sweet treats and typical dishes to try. More than this, the marketplace is an opportunity to meet local people and see the ‘real’ France.

THE BEACHES OF BRITTANY
The unspoilt Breton coastline is liberally dotted with family friendly bays and secluded coves, usually a perfect mixture of soft sand to relax on and thriving rock pools to explore. Traditionally a region of seafarers, Brittany has excellent sailing and watersport facilities and keen anglers will be in their element.

THE HERITAGE OF SOUTH WEST FRANCE
Enviable for its cultural and historical breadth, the south west corner of France boasts Roman remains, Cathar fortresses, Renaissance cathedrals, fairytale châteaux and perfectly preserved medieval bastide towns. It is also a treasure trove for the arts, from prehistoric cave paintings to masterpieces by artists such as Toulouse-Lautrec.

THE CUISINE OF PROVENCE & CÔTE D’AZUR
Classic Mediterranean ingredients such as tomatoes and olives blended with aromatic herbs are the basis of many typical Provençal dishes. The fishy speciality ‘bouillabaisse’ is a must try, perhaps followed by goat’s cheese and honey, or an almond sweet. And the perfect accompaniment is a chilled glass of the local rosé!

FESTIVALS
Flower battles in the perfume town of Grasse, jazz on the Côte d’Azur, traditional Breton ‘Fest Noz’ evenings of music and dancing, theatre and music at the Bonaguil festival in the Lot-et-Garonne; just a few of the amazingly diverse festivities that you may be able to experience during your stay.

OUR HIGHLIGHTS
A wonderful week in this most beautiful house. Lots of swimming, food, rosé and relaxation. We loved it here - it is a great holiday destination and a wonderful location and house.

La Cour  Gaillac, Tarn  South West France

Sleeps 6 • 5 Bedrooms • 4 Bathrooms • WiFi • Table Tennis • Town House

Surrounded by vineyards, Gaillac has forever been intertwined with wine. In one of the side streets radiating from the centre, we discovered La Cour, a townhouse with its own private swimming pool, only a short walk (300m) to a tree-lined square with cafés and restaurants. Its façade hides surprisingly spacious accommodation over three floors. A contemporary kitchen leads through to a dining room with traditional fireplace and doors onto the rear courtyard, where there is space for a swimming pool and terrace, as well as table tennis on the upper level. With amenities, museums and markets on the doorstep, a week could pass by without use of the car but take a day to explore the bastide towns of the area and, of course, a short distance away, the village of Miniac-Bourrouilh is classed as one of the most beautiful villages in France and offers some great eateries. More restaurants and amenities are available close by in Gaillac (2km) and, further afield, the charming cities of Carmaux, Carcassonne and Villeneuve are all well worth a visit.

DISCOVER MORE
Focussing on areas of great natural beauty and cultural wealth, our selection of properties covers central Italy, encompassing the vineyards of Tuscany and the rolling hills of Umbria, the blue-flagged beaches of Le Marche and the glory of the Eternal City, Rome, as well as the fascinating island of Sicily.

Yet we feel equal enjoyment can be had from simply becoming immersed in the Italian way of life: sipping a morning cappuccino in the square and watching the world go by, buying fresh market produce and tasting delicious homemade gelato, and joining the locals on their passaggiata evening stroll through the streets.
THE CUISINE OF TUSCANY

Tuscan cuisine is characterised by fresh seasonal produce and locally reared meat, perhaps the most famous dish being 'bistecca alla fiorentina', a rare and flavoursome T-bone steak. Olives are key ingredients, and truffles are often added to pasta dishes in season. Pecorino is Tuscany’s famous cheese, eaten fresh like ricotta or mature like parmesan.

THE HISTORY OF Lazio

Rome is of course the mecca for those interested in Roman sites, as well as Renaissance treasures, but the wider region also offers much of interest. Northern Lazio was the heart of the Etruscan civilisation; at Tuscania, Etruscan remains still exist alongside medieval buildings, and the Etruscan museum and necropolis at Tarquinia are fascinating.

This is our first time to Bolsena, it has a very relaxed feel to it and the scenery is beautiful. Casa Francigena has made our holiday a very memorable one. It is beautifully decorated and the private pool is a great treat. The owners made us feel very welcome and nothing was too much trouble. Thank you for having us and we hope to be back one day.

A & K, Casa Francigena, Lazio

THE TOWNS OF LE MARCHE

Some of Le Marche’s gems are the picture postcard village of San Ginesio, art nouveau houses on the seafront at Porto Sant’Elpidio, Ascoli Piceno’s beautiful marble piazza, Jesi with its impressively intact city walls, and Tolentino where visitors can make use of the thermal baths as the Romans did in their day.

THE EVENTS OF UMBRIA

Among Umbria’s annual festivities are the Crossbow Palio in Gubbio, flag-waving and archery at Assisi’s medieval pageant, and the world famous jazz festival in Perugia. Lake Trasimeno also plays host to various events, including a kite festival in spring, then in July a boat race half on water, half on land!

THE VIBRANT, CAPTIVATING ISLAND OF SICILY

The largest island in the Mediterranean, Sicily boasts a diverse landscape from gorgeous beaches to mountains and volcanoes, 5 regional parks and 77 nature reserves. It is also a treasure trove of art and architecture, awash with history and legend, and the unique Sicilian culture and cuisine which draws visitors back again and again.

A scenic drive around the lake reveals pretty villages such as Merta, Capodimonte and Montefiascone. Explore further to discover an area rich with Etruscan and Roman ruins, medieval architecture, notably the 'abandoned' village of Civita Bagnoregio (15km), beautiful villas and gardens such as Villa Lante (33km) as well as the beaches along the Etruscan Riviera.

Having rented many villas over the last 40 years I was very impressed by Vintage Travel from the outset. Being able to call the office and have your questions answered straight away or calling you back or emailing whenever they had found out was a breath of fresh air. The villa was lovely and the owner, Anna, delightful and extremely helpful, not to mention the tart and cakes she baked for us. We will certainly go to the same villa again and use Vintage Travel for any other holiday we plan in Europe. I will also be recommending you to our friends who enjoy similar holidays to us.

The Groom party, Casale Anna, Umbria
CROATIA

ISTRIA  DUBROVNIK

Croatia is one of Europe’s hidden wonders. Over a thousand miles of beautiful coastline and a similar number of islands to match. Pick of the country for us are Istria in the north, Italianate and cone-shaped, and the Dubrovnik region at the very southern tip, a narrow ribbon of fertile terra magica flanked by jagged mountains to the east and the dazzling Adriatic to the west.

Different geographically, but similar in so many ways, Dubrovnik and Istria are rich in history, culture, architecture, cuisine, physical beauty and share the same alluring sea.
ENDURING TRADITION IN THE KONAVLE

Konavle’s national costume, especially that for women, has been preserved right up to the present day and assumes cultural significance for the Dubrovnik region. Decorated with sumptuous silk embroidery, produced locally, it’s best seen today at a Sunday folklore show of traditional songs and dances in the village of Čilipi.

CUISINE

Wherever you go in Croatia, good food is assured. It could be a village cafe in Istria serving focaccia of air-dried pršut (prosciutto); a Konavle konoba (country restaurant) serving slow cooked lamb under an iron lid; or a family-run winery that was producing quality wines long before they became fashionable.

We were delighted with our choice of villa and location. One week wasn’t long enough to explore this beautiful area so we will have to go back some time. The owner had such a pride in his house and determination that everything would be perfect for his guests. Thank you, Vintage, for finding this little gem.

Mr & Mrs Fairer, Sele, Dubrovnik

DUBROVNIK’S CITY WALLS

A walk around the city’s mighty walls, up to six metres thick in places, with corners guarded by four forts is highly recommended to orientate yourself, absorb the atmosphere of the old town, and for some splendid, unique views. Go early for easy parking and to avoid the sun’s glare!

LANGUAGE IN ISTRIA

Istria is two borders away from Italy. Road signs are in Croatian and Italian: so Rovinj is Rovigno for example. In town, two words precede every street name, so ulica is via and trg is piazza. Most Istrians speak both Italian and Croatian but worry not, English is widely spoken too!

ROVINJ

Did we mention Rovinj? It’s a must-see gem, the old town a conical hill atop a pear-shaped promontory. Bubbling boats, yachts and ferries squeeze into the harbour whose quayside is lined with shuttered buildings in weathered pastel shades of terracotta, peach and mustard. An aesthetic orgy! Don’t forget your camera...

Bolara  Ponte Porton, Grožnjan  Istria
WEB REF: 046
Sleeps 2 • 1 Bedroom • 1 Bathroom • Air Conditioning • WiFi
Nestling on the wooded slopes close to the medieval hilltop village of Grožnjan, Bolara is one of the prettiest and most spacious stone built cottages we have discovered, a perfect hideaway for honeymooners and couples. Originally conceived as a two bedroom property the owner decided that he liked the space so much he would leave it as a one bedroom house and maybe, one day, add another bedroom... or maybe not. It contains a wealth of characterful, authentic details such as open-faced walls, internal arches and solid wood cross beams. The private pool is also a good size and sits in a sunny position surrounded by lawn and terracing. The effect is a property of immense atmosphere where privacy, peace and back to nature tranquillity are all assured. Grožnjan (7km) is home to a couple of restaurants, minimarket and galleries and craft shops.

Enjoying the same panoramic views over the Konavle valley as Ana, its façade of local stone reveals an interior that combines traditional frescoed beams with a fresh, light décor. The front terrace leads to the pool complete with covered dining area and wood oven. Ljuta (7km) has a popular waterside restaurant, with Gruda (9km) and Clipi (7km) providing amenities. Vines and cypresses dot the valley, creating a picturesque backdrop for walking and cycling, whilst its beaches offer the opportunity to dip into the clear waters of the Adriatic Sea. Greece is a land of sunshine and sand, mountains and myths, history and hospitality all presented in a glorious mêlée of colour and sound. Amongst pine clad hills fringed by crystal-clear waters and sun-dappled olive groves, traditional family-run tavernas offer delicious meze; mouth-watering local appetisers, crisp refreshing wines and plenty of freshly caught seafood. It is a 21st Century delight to discover such places do, indeed, still exist in sleepy hamlets, scenic fishing villages and often at the waters’ edge of the many picture-postcard beaches.

Pack a picnic and explore the small ‘secret’ coves around Corfu and Kefalonia by boat; experience the rich history and unique flora and fauna of Crete; discover peaceful orchards, ancient monasteries and scenic footpaths of Skopelos; world class beaches in Lefkada; Ithacan myths and hidden Peloponnesian mysteries. Greece, a land of endless variety. A people of generous spirit.
LEFKADA – WORLD FAMOUS BEACHES

With easy access via a causeway and floating bridge, Lefkada remains one of the few Greek islands readily accessible by car.

Chief among many charms must be the island’s wealth of wonderful beaches (including Porto Katsiki, Kathisma, Egremni and Nydri) – some of which are considered not just amongst the best in Greece but worldwide! Diving, wind/kite surfing and first-class sailing are all on offer. inland, verdant hillsides secrete somnolent, tradition-steeped villages and historically important ruins of castles, temples and monasteries mingle amongst appealing seaside villages such as Vasiliki, Stivda and Agios Nikitas.

ITHACA – MYTHICAL AND MYSTICAL

A short hop across the water from Kefalonia, sleepy Ithaca is considered by many as the quintessential Greek island. Famously home to the mythological Odysseus, hero of the epic poem by Homer, this is an island of pine-clad hillsides, picturesque harbours, seafront villages and ‘secret’ coves. Wander along the trails, swim in some of the most crystal clear waters you will see anywhere in the Mediterranean and enjoy the freshest of seafood dishes in the laid-back local tavernas. Simple charming and priceless pleasures all.

THE MANY AND VARIED BEACHES OF CORFU

The diverse coastlines of Corfu present vast swathes of sandy beaches in the south and west, and ‘secret’ coves and bays in the north east. Excellent sailing and water sports abound, and beachside tavernas tempt with leisurely lunches – part of the fun is discovering your favourite!

KEFALONIA’S COLOURFUL VILLAGES AND VINEYARDS

This large mountainous island is scattered with hamlets, settlements and villages over hills and dales. Pastel coloured houses adorned with bougainvillea, simple village shops and traditional tavernas remain timeless and charming. Famed for its vineyards, Robola, Gentili and Mavroka wineries offer wine tastings and tours of the vineyards.

THE PELOPONNESE – GENTLE UNSPOILT GREEK CHARM

It could be said that the Peloponnese has something for everyone: beautiful beaches, imposing mountains, unspoilt towns, villages and hamlets which appear to have stood still for decades, a wealth of historical sites, castles and fortresses and an abundance of wildlife, much of it indigenous to the region. Come for a week and you will wish you were staying for longer...

OUR HIGHLIGHTS

A truly fantastic holiday that so far has been one of the best. The villa was stunning and 360 degree views were breathtaking.
